

Airshow® 100 and 200 Moving Map Product Discontinuance

Ref. No. 2006-048M
Pub Date 10/2006

Due to the demand for technology advancement and obsolescence of key hardware components, the Airshow 100 was moved to end of support status in July 2001, and the Airshow 200 in July 2002. Airshow Inc. released an end of support notification which was communicated to users, dealers and airframe manufacturers in July 2001 (see attached letter for more information).

As part of the Airshow Inc. integration into Rockwell Collins, a review of the Airshow 100 and 200 supportability was accomplished and verified the products remain unsupported.
