

Airshow TV™ MRDU Satellite TV System End of support notice.

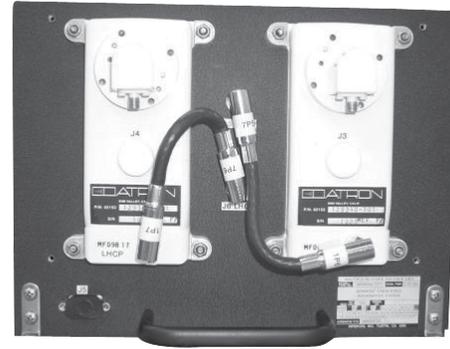

Ref. No. 2008-057M
Pub Date 05/2008

Due to obsolescence of key hardware components, the Airshow TV™ Multiple Receiver/Decoder unit (MRDU) satellite TV system will be moving to an “End of Life” (EOL) status effective immediately.

Research, development and product enhancements for the Airshow TV MRDU satellite TV system have ceased and Rockwell Collins is no longer able to support or repair the below list of products. Rockwell Collins no longer bears responsibility for any MRDU satellite TV systems remaining installed after EOL. This termination of support also applies to all associated operational and custom software used with the Airshow TV MRDU satellite TV system. Antenna units fitted with these systems will continue to be supported until further notice.
